How to use the MS Word’s Styles feature?

Title of the contribution

Author’s Name and Surname
Author’s affiliation including the name of the institution, city, country and e-mail

Abstracts should be 500 words in length (not more than one page) and should state the objectives, methodology, and outcomes of the contribution clearly. This template should be used for contributions such as papers, posters, workshops and panels. Contributions must be prepared by using the MS Word and not exceed one page. They must be submitted electronically via the conference web page.

Abstracts should be formatted for A4 paper, and using Times New Roman font type. Abstracts must contain the title of the paper (15 point font) and the authors’ names, affiliations and email addresses (10 point font) which should all be left justified.

Sections
Sections should not be numbered. Section headings should be in 11 point and italic. Right and left margins should be justified.

Reference style and citations
The accuracy and completeness of the references is the responsibility of the author. References to personal letters, papers presented at meetings, and other unpublished material may be included. The format for citations in text for bibliographic references follows the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (7th ed., 2001). Citation of an author’s work in the text should follow the author-date method of citation; the surname of the author(s) and the year of publication should appear in text. For example:
Select the Home tab.
You can see the ECIL formatting styles in the Styles menu.
To apply a particular Style simply select the appropriate section...

Title of the contribution

Author’s Name and Surname

Author’s affiliation including the name of the institution, city, country and e-mail

Abstracts should be 500 words in length (not more than one page) and should state the objectives, methodology, and outcomes of the contribution clearly. This template should be used for contributions such as papers, posters, workshops, and panels. Contributions must be prepared by using the MS Word and not exceed one page. They must be submitted electronically via the conference webpage.

Abstracts should be formatted for A4 paper, and using Times New Roman font type. Abstracts must contain the title of the paper (15 point font) and the author’s names, affiliations and email addresses (10 point font) which should all be left justified.

Sections

Sections should not be numbered. Section headings should be in 11 point and italic. Right and left margins should be justified.

Reference style and citations

The accuracy and completeness of the references is the responsibility of the author. References to personal letters, papers presented at meetings, and other unpublished material may be included. The format for citations in text for bibliographic references follows the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (6th ed., 2011). Citation of an author’s work in the text should follow the author-date method of citation; the surname of the author(s) and the year of publication should appear in text. For example:
...and click on the Style you wish to apply.
Title of the contribution

Author's Name and Surname
Author's affiliation including the name of the institution, city, country and e-mail

Abstracts should be 500 words in length (not more than one page) and should state the objectives, methodology, and outcomes of the contribution clearly. This template should be used for contributions such as papers, posters, workshops and panels. Contributions must be prepared by using the MS Word and not exceed one page. They must be submitted electronically via the conference web page.

Abstracts should be formatted for A4 paper, and using Times New Roman font type. Abstracts must contain the title of the paper (15 point font) and the authors' names, affiliations and email addresses (10 point font) which should all be left justified.

Sections
Sections should not be numbered. Section headings should be in 11 point and italic. Right and left margins should be justified.

Reference style and citations
The accuracy and completeness of the references is the responsibility of the author. References to personal letters, papers presented at meetings, and other unpublished material may be included. The format for citations in text for bibliographic references follows the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (5th ed., 2001). Citation of an author's work in the text should follow the author-date method of citation; the surname of the author(s) and the year of publication should appear in text. For example:
...to open the full Styles menu.